

An aerial photograph showing a large, undeveloped plot of land, labeled 'SITE', situated between State Hwy 121 and Canyon Drive. The site is bordered by a parking lot and a multi-story building to the north, and a large parking lot and a long, low commercial building to the south. To the east, a residential neighborhood is visible, separated by a road. The background shows a vast expanse of land with scattered trees and distant city structures under a clear sky.
